

Education

Ph.D., University of Texas, Austin

Anthropology (Specializations in Folklore Studies, Women's Studies), 1990

Dissertation Title: "The Ribbon around the Pentagon: Women's Fabric Arts as a Vehicle for Social Critique"

M.Div., Princeton Theological Seminary

Religion and Society (Specialization in Women's Studies), 1978

B.A., Occidental College

Religion (German Minor), 1975

Study Abroad Program, Universität des Saarlandes

Saarbrücken, W. Germany, 1973-74

Educational Employment

2001-present	Professor, Women's Studies Department, California State University San Marcos Program Director (Sept. 2001-Sept. 2003, Mar. 2004-Aug. 2005) and first tenure-line faculty member
1999-2001	Director, San Diego Regional Programs, University of Redlands, San Diego, CA
1990-1999	Associate Professor, Department of Women's Studies, State University of New York at Albany
1986-1988	Adjunct Instructor, St. Edward's University, Austin, TX
1986-1988	Teaching and Research Assistant, Department of Anthropology, University of Texas at Austin
1977-1978	Director, Campus Women's Center, Princeton Theological Seminary, Princeton, NJ
1976	Teaching Assistant, Greek Language Courses, Princeton Theological Seminary, Princeton, NJ